OUR COMMITMENT

We are committed to the following key principles and objectives when handling Complaints;

- We will consider the facts and circumstances surrounding all Complaints in a fair manner;
- We will properly allocate responsibilities for dealings with Complaints;
- We will perform reviews on all Complaints and derive value therefrom;

- We will investigate or cause to investigate all Complaints in a transparent and timely manner;
- We will ensure that all Complaints will be deemed important and receive adequate consideration;
- We will manage the process of investigation and reporting of all Complaints in a professional manner;
- We will investigate, and where necessary, take appropriate action in order to avoid and prevent similar circumstances which gave rise to the Complaint;
- We will implement appropriate performance standards, remuneration and reward strategies for Complaints management to ensure objectivity and impartiality;
- We undertake to document procedures for management and categorisation of Complaints, incl. expected turn-around times and the circumstances under which it may be extended;
- We shall provide continuous training of all personnel involved in the Complaints process by ensuring that such staff are not only proficient but also have adequate knowledge of the subject matter that led to any Complaint in order for them to expertly resolve such Complaints;
- We will provide training of all personnel on their duties and responsibilities and creating Complaints and customer services awareness amongst other personnel to minimise the risk of Complaints occurring;
- We undertake to document procedures which clearly define the escalation, decision-making, monitoring, oversight, and review processes;
- We will keep appropriate Complaint record keeping, monitoring and analysis of Complaints, and, where applicable, reporting to Executive Management, the Board of Directors, the Members and any relevant committee of the board on –
 - Identified risks, trends and action taken in response thereto; and
 - The effectiveness and outcomes of the Complaints management framework.
- We will provide appropriate communication and reporting to Complainants; persons representing Complainants; the relevant Ombud; the Authority and public reporting in accordance with the General Code of Conduct for Authorised FSP's and Representatives.
- We will implement a process for managing Complaints relating to our representatives and service suppliers, insofar as such Complaints relate to services provided in connection with our financial products, financial services or related services, which process will:
 - Enable us to reasonably satisfy ourselves that our representative or service supplier has adequate Complaints management processes in place to ensure the fair treatment of Complainants;
 - Provide for the monitoring and analysis of aggregated Complaints data in relation to the Complaints received by our representatives and service suppliers and their outcomes;
 - Include effective referral processes between our business, our representatives and service suppliers for handling and monitoring Complaints that are submitted directly to either of them and require referral to the other for resolution; and
 - Include processes to ensure that Complainants are appropriately informed of the process being followed and the outcome of the Complaint.
- Where deemed necessary, we may appoint an independent mediator to resolve certain Complaints.
- Where the Complaint is resolved in favour of the Complainant, we will offer the appropriate level of redress to the Complainant without delay.

- We will maintain a record of all Complaints for a period of 5 years together with an indication of whether or not the Complaint has been resolved.
- We will establish and maintain appropriate processes for reporting all Complaints related information to our Governing Body or Executive Management or Compliance Officers.

DEFINITIONS

Client query	Client query means a request to the provider or the provider's service supplier by or on behalf of a client, for information regarding the provider's financial products, financial services or related processes, or to carry out a transaction or action in relation to any such product or service.
Compensation payment	Compensation payment means a payment, whether in monetary form or in the form of a benefit or service, by or on behalf of a provider to a Complainant to compensate the Complainant for a proven or estimated financial loss incurred as a result of the provider's contravention, non-compliance, action, failure to act, or unfair treatment forming the basis of the Complaint, where the provider accepts liability for having caused the loss concerned, but excludes any - (a) goodwill payment; (b) payment contractually due to the Complainant in terms of the financial product or financial service concerned; or (c) refund of an amount paid by or on behalf of the Complainant to the provider where such payment was not contractually due; and includes any interest on late payment of any amount referred to in (b) or (c);
Complaint	Complaint means an expression of dissatisfaction by a person to a provider or, to the knowledge of the provider, to the provider's service supplier relating to a financial product or financial service provided or offered by that provider which indicates or alleges, regardless of whether such an expression of dissatisfaction is submitted together with or in relation to a client query, that - (a) the provider or its service supplier has contravened or failed to comply with an agreement, a law, a rule, or a code of conduct which is binding on the provider or to which it subscribes; (b) the provider or its service supplier's maladministration or wilful or negligent action or failure to act, has caused the person harm, prejudice, distress or substantial inconvenience; or (c) the provider or its service supplier has treated the person unfairly;
Complainant	Complainant means a person who submits a Complaint and includes a - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) client; (b) person nominated as the person in respect of whom a product supplier should meet financial product benefits or that persons' successor in title; (c) person whose life is insured under a financial product that is an insurance policy; (d) person that pays a premium or an investment amount in respect of a financial product; (e) member; (f) person whose dissatisfaction relates to the approach, solicitation marketing or advertising material or an advertisement in respect of a financial product, financial service or related service of the provider, who has a direct interest in the agreement, financial product or financial service to which the Complaint relates, or a person acting on behalf of a person referred to in (a) to (f);

Goodwill payment	Goodwill payment means a payment, whether in monetary form or in the form of a benefit or service, by or on behalf of a provider to a Complainant as an expression of goodwill aimed at resolving a Complaint, where the provider does not accept liability for any financial loss to the Complainant as a result of the matter complained about.
Head of the FSP	Head of the FSP is an impartial, senior functionary within the provider, or who has been appointed by the provider, to manage the internal Complaints escalation and review process.
Internal Complaints Review and Escalation Process	Internal Complaints Review and Escalation Process means the system and procedures established and maintained by the FSP in accordance with the General Code of Conduct for the resolution of reportable Complaints lodged against the FSP by Complainants.

Rejected	Rejected in relation to a Complaint means that a Complaint has not been upheld and the provider regards the Complaint as finalised after advising the Complainant that it does not intend to take any further action to resolve the Complaint and includes Complaints regarded by the provider as unjustified or invalid, or where the Complainant does not accept or respond to the provider's proposals to resolve the Complaint.
Reportable Complaint	Reportable Complaint means any Complaint other than a Complaint that has been - (a) upheld immediately by the person who initially received the Complaint; (b) upheld within the provider's ordinary processes for handling client queries in relation to the type of financial product or financial service complained about, provided that such process does not take more than five business days from the date the Complaint is received; or (c) submitted to or brought to the attention of the provider in such a manner that the provider does not have a reasonable opportunity to record such details of the Complaint as may be prescribed in relation to reportable Complaints.
Service Supplier	Service Supplier means any person (whether or not that person is the agent of the provider), other than a representative, with whom a provider has an arrangement relating to the marketing, distribution, administration or provision of financial products, financial services or related services.
Upheld	Upheld means that a Complaint has been finalised wholly or partially in favour of the Complainant and that-- (a) the Complainant has explicitly accepted that the matter is fully resolved; or (b) it is reasonable for the provider to assume that the Complainant has so accepted; and (c) all undertakings made by the provider to resolve the Complaint have been met or the Complainant has explicitly indicated its satisfaction with any arrangements to ensure such undertakings will be met by the provider within a time acceptable to the Complainant.

ALLOCATION OF RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board of Directors / Members of the Close Corporation / Sole Proprietor is responsible for effective Complaints Management and must oversee and approve the effectiveness and implementation of the Complaints Management Framework.

All persons involved in the handling of Complaints must be adequately trained, have an appropriate mix of experience, knowledge and skills in Complaints handling, fair treatment of customers, the subject matter of the Complaints concerned and the relevant legal and regulatory matters.

Our Complaints process consists of the following persons:

- Complaints Handler is the person who is appointed to handle the Complaint from the onset. Such person is empowered to make a decision provided that the Complaint is not complex or unusual.
- Complaints Manager is the person who is appointed to handle the Complaint after the Complaints Handler transferred the Complaint internally due to the complex/unusual nature of the Complaint. The Complaints Manager is also the person who handles the Complaint after the Complainant escalated the Complaint due to poor claims handling. Such person is empowered to make a decision on the Complaint.
- Head of the FSP is the person who will handle the Complaint after a decision was made by the Complaints Handler / Complaints Manager and where the Complainant requested that the outcome be reviewed through escalation.

INTERNAL COMPLAINT ESCALATION & REVIEW PROCESS

Through the adoption of this Framework, the Provider establishes an appropriate Internal Complaints Escalation and Review Process.

The Provider is committed to ensuring that the procedures within the Complaints Escalation and Review Process is not overly complicated and does not impose unduly burdensome paperwork or other administrative requirements on Complainants.

The Internal Complaint Escalation and Review Process:

- Follows a balanced approach, which bears in mind the legitimate interests of all parties involved, including the fair treatment of Complainants;
- Provides for the Complaints Handler to escalate complex or unusual Complaints to the Complaints Manager;
- Provides for Complainants to escalate Complaints to the Complaints Manager as a result of poor claims handling by the Complaints Handler;
- Provides for Complainants to escalate Complaints, to the Head of the FSP, where the Complaint was not resolved to their satisfaction;
- The Internal Escalation and Review Process is managed by the Head of the FSP.

Where the Complaint was unsatisfactorily resolved, the Provider must provide the Complainant with the details of the relevant Ombud, together with applicable deadlines. (within two days of the decision being made by the relevant party)

FSP is to monitor the relevant party's complaint timelines and engage with the relevant party on behalf of the Complainant. Regular Feedback Reports are to be sent to the Complainant.

We have documented our Complaints Handling Procedure in Annexure "A" as a step-by-step flow diagram. Timelines indicated in our Complaints Handling Procedure must be strictly adhered. In the event where we are unable to comply with a specified time frame, we will inform the Complainant and provide full reasons. We will further document and analyse same to ensure that we re-structure our processes and avoid future occurrences.

Time-frames may not be adhered to and will be extended under the following circumstances:

- Where a Complaint is referred to a Service Supplier for their investigation and decision
- Where the Complaint is complex and requires more time to properly investigate the issues

- Where we are awaiting on a third party to provide any relevant information / evidence / documentation
- Where the Complainant does not provide all requested information timeously
- In the event of circumstances which are beyond the control of the Provider or its Service Suppliers
- Where the Provider's business has suffered damage due to flooding, fire, cyber theft, structural collapse or under any other circumstances in which the Provider is not able to operate normally.

The Provider will ensure that it informs its Professional Indemnity Insurer of any potential claims.

PROCEDURE FOR LODGING A COMPLAINT

Where there is a Complaint against the Provider, its Representatives or its Service Supplier, the Complaint must be submitted in writing on using the "Complaint Lodgement Form" annexed hereto as Annexure B.

The Complaint Lodgement Form together with all supporting documents must be e-mailed to:

Complaints@centrevo.co.za

DECISIONS RELATING TO COMPLAINTS

Any person that is responsible for making decisions or recommendations in respect of Complaints generally or a specific Complaint must

- Be adequately trained;
- Have an appropriate mix of experience, knowledge and skills in Complaints handling, fair treatment of customers, the subject matter of the Complaints concerned and relevant legal and regulatory matters;
- Not be subject to a conflict of interest; and
- Be adequately empowered to make impartial decisions or recommendations.

Where a Complaint is upheld, any commitment by the Provider to make a compensation payment, goodwill payment or to take any other action, must at all times be carried out without undue delay and within the agreed timeframes.

Where a Complaint is rejected, the Provider will provide the Complainant with clear and adequate reasons for the decision, and will also inform the Complainant of the Provider's escalation or review process. The Provider will also inform the Complainant of any time limits relevant to the escalation or review process.

The Provider will clearly and transparently communicate the availability and contact details of the relevant Ombud to Complainants at the start of the relationship, and in relevant periodic communications.

The Provider will also display and make available information regarding the relevant Ombud on its premises and website.

The Provider will Reject Complaints in accordance with the following reasons:

1. Reason for Rejection	2. Reason for Rejection	3. Reason for Rejection
Finalized following our non-acceptance of liability	Invalid or Unjustified	Unresolved
This reason for rejection will be used where the FSP does not intend to take any further action to resolve the complaint. The FSP rejects the complaint and closes its file.	This reason for rejection will be used where the complaint has no merit or where there is no justification or where there are no legal grounds.	This reason for rejection will be used where complainant does not accept or respond timeously to the provider's proposals to resolve the complaint and/or where the provider is unable to reach the complainant.

The Provider will Uphold Complaints in accordance with the following reasons:

Option 1	Option 2	Option 3	Option 4
Compensation Payment	Goodwill Payment	Payment Contractually due	Refund
This payment, whether monetary or in the form of a benefit or service, is to compensate a complainant for a proven or estimated financial loss incurred as a result of the FSP's wrongdoing.	This payment, whether monetary or in the form of a benefit or service, is an expression of goodwill to resolve the complaint however the FSP does not accept liability.	This payment is due contractually in terms of the financial product or financial service concerned.	This payment is the refund of an amount paid by or on behalf of the complainant to the provider where such payment was not contractually due

COMPLAINTS RELATING TO REPRESENTATIVES AND SERVICE SUPPLIERS

Where the Complaint is in relation to financial products, financial services or related services, the Provider will ensure that:

- It has a process for managing such complaints by ensuring that the Representative and/or Service Supplier has adequate complaints management processes in place to ensure fair treatment of complainants;
- It monitors and analyses the Representative and/or Service Supplier's aggregated complaints data in relation to complaints received and their outcomes;
- It has an effective referral process between itself and the Representative and/or Service Supplier for handling and monitoring complaints that are submitted directly to either of them and require referral to the other for resolution;
- It has a process to ensure that Complainants are appropriately informed of the process being followed and the outcome of the complaint.

The Provider will ensure that its Representatives complete and sign the Complaints Referral Process Agreement for Representatives.

The Provider will forward its Complaints Referral Process for Service Suppliers to all of its Service Suppliers to ensure that the Service Supplier is aware of the process to be followed for referral of Complaints.

RECORD KEEPING

The Provider will maintain a record of such a Complaint for a period of five years, which record must include:

- Full details of the Complainant;
- Nature of the Complaint;
- Categorization of the Complaint;
- Progress and status of the Complaint.

The Provider will maintain a record of the following information for each category of Complaints:

- Number of Complaints received;
- Number of Complaints upheld;
- Number of rejected Complaints and reasons for the rejection;
- Number of Complaints escalated by Complainants;
- Number of Complaints referred to an Ombud and their outcome;
- Number and amounts of compensation payments made;
- Number and amounts of goodwill payments made; and
- The total number of Complaints outstanding.

The Provider confirms that it has a documented General Complaints Register and a Reportable Complaints Data Register in place.

TRAINING

For purposes of effective and fair resolution of Complaints, all relevant employees will receive Complaint's Management training, as well as training aimed at ensuring full knowledge of the provisions of the FAIS Act, the Rules on Proceedings of the Office of the FAIS Ombud and the FAIS General Code of Conduct regarding the resolution of Complaints.

COMPLAINTS RISK MANAGEMENT

There is an ongoing obligation on the Provider to review and analyse Complaints to determine where the provider's Treating the Customer Fairly (TCF) and Policyholder Protection Rules (PPR) risk areas are. Risk areas must be assessed to determine which lapses or trends in Complaints frequency, types of Complaints, etc. require remedial action. The following issues must be considered in deciding whether remedial action is required as well as how imminent such action must be taken:

- Whether turn-around times were adhered to;
- Whether the outcomes of Complaints were fair under all circumstances;
- Whether Complaints that were not reportable indicate noteworthy trends in relation to the types, volumes or incidences of such informal Complaints;
- Whether reportable Complaints indicate any risk areas in relation to aspects such as advice, service delivery or lack of internal control; and
- Whether Complaints reports to be scrutinised and analysed on an ongoing basis and to be utilised to manage conduct risks, to improve outcomes for policyholders.

ENGAGEMENT WITH THE OMBUD AND REPORTING

The Provider is committed to transparent engagement with any relevant Ombud in relation to its Complaints.

In light of the above, the Provider will monitor determinations, publications and guidance issued by any relevant Ombud with a view to identifying failings or risks in the Provider's policies, services or practices.

The Provider will maintain open and honest communication and co-operation between itself and any Ombud with which it deals.

The Provider is also committed to resolving a Complaint before a final determination or ruling is made by an Ombud, or through the Provider's internal escalation process, without impeding or unduly delaying a Complainant's access to an Ombud.

The Provider will ensure that it has the appropriate processes in place to ensure compliance with any prescribed requirements for reporting Complaints related information to any designated Authority, or to the public as may be required.

The Provider confirms that it has a documented FAIS Ombud Register in place and undertakes to update same continually.

COMPLAINT'S MANAGEMENT AT THE FAIS OMBUD

For a Complaint to be submitted to the FAIS Ombud, the following requirements must be met:

- The Complaint must fall within the ambit of the FAIS Act and the rules of the FAIS Ombud;
- The person against whom the Complaint is made must be subject to the provisions of the FAIS Act (hereafter referred to as "the respondent");
- The act or omission complained of must have occurred at a time when these rules were in force; and
- The respondent must have failed to address the Complaint satisfactorily within six weeks of receiving a notice of the Complaint from the FAIS Ombud;
- A Complainant may seek any relief relating to the subject matter of the Complaint, but a Complaint constituting a claim for a monetary award, must relate to the redress of financial prejudice or damage suffered or likely to be suffered by the Complainant;
- The Complaint must not constitute a monetary claim of more than R800 000 for a specific incident of financial prejudice or damage, unless the respondent has agreed in writing to this limitation being exceeded, or the Complainant has abandoned the amount which is in excess of R800 000;
- The Complaint must not relate to the investment performance of a financial product unless such performance was guaranteed expressly or implicitly, or such performance appears to be so deficient as to raise a presumption of misrepresentation, negligence or maladministration on the part of the respondent.
- The determination is binding and is enforceable just as a judgment of a Court of Law is.
- The Ombud may not investigate complaints where the complainant has a net asset value, annual turnover, or annual income of more than R8 million.
- You must approach the FAIS Ombud within 6 months from the date of the final rejection letter from our office.
